Dear New GUSD Educator,

Welcome to the Glendale Unified School District (GUSD) and the Glendale Teachers Association (GTA).

When you sign up to be a GTA member, you join nearly 1,250 Glendale education professionals in an organization that is dedicated to improving public education and the lives of students and educators. By joining GTA, you automatically become a member of both the state and national teachers associations – the California Teachers Association (CTA), with approximately 310,000 members statewide; and the National Education Association (NEA), with approximately 3 million members nationwide.

GTA is the advocate and bargaining unit for educators in GUSD. GTA negotiates your employment contract, processes grievances, and promotes professional development. Please follow our Glendale Teachers Association Facebook and Instagram accounts in order to stay informed. Additionally, information is available on our website, including:

- your contract, which includes your pay schedule and working conditions
- your site representatives and GTA board members
- important resources, benefits and frequently used contact numbers
- access to The Advocate, our quarterly newsletter
- bargaining and organizing updates

Use the QR Code to access union information at www.glendaleteachers.org.

Soon after you submit a membership application to join, you will receive your CTA membership card, which includes your member identification number. Use your member number to access the CTA website, www.CTA.org. Here you will find more member benefits, including discounts on travel and theme parks and legal services. You will also find professional development opportunities.

You can find GTA new teacher information, including the slide show you see today, on www.glendaleteachers.org. Please call the GTA office with any questions or find your site rep at your work site to assist you. I also encourage you to look at CTA supplemental benefits as soon as possible. Some benefits, like CTA Income Protection (disability insurance, including maternity) with the CTA endorsed company, The Standard, are available to you without a health screening during open enrollment and the first few months of your employment.

I know you have a lot to offer our profession and students as you share your expertise, knowledge, and passion. To that end, I encourage you to be involved in our Association. Please keep an eye out for various opportunities to be an active participant, including attending social events to build camaraderie and participating in CTA professional development opportunities to build your success with students. Have a wonderful school year!

United,

Taline Arsenian, proud president
