BARGAINING UPDATE

December 9, 2021

GTA and GUSD Reach a Tentative Agreement!

A tentative agreement was signed today regarding . . .

- extending the Professional Development MOU through Aug. 13, 2022. This means that educators will continue to be paid at their contractual hourly rate of pay for leading and/or attending district-approved professional development.
- a virtual Open House for the 2021-22 school year with the following parameters:
 - Open House will not be used as a forum for parent conferences
 - Members will use live interaction
 - Members will be able to choose a presentation format
 - Members may conduct their virtual Open House presentation from their classroom or off campus
 - School sites will establish a schedule for Open House

A ratification through a full membership vote shall occur in January.

In addition, norms were established for upcoming contract negotiations, and a schedule was established for bimonthly negotiation dates beginning in January.

The next negotiation date is Friday, Jan. 14. At this time, both parties will begin exchanging proposals related to the Collective Bargaining Agreement, including wages.

Next Bargaining Date: January 14, 2022
